

Summary: Dar Les Cigognes

Opened fully in October 2004, a new hotel in the heart of the famous medina in Marrakech, Morocco, and the final realisation of a dream that was born nearly four years ago.

The building, originally a merchant's townhouse with walls dating back to the 1600s, was architecturally designed by Charles Boccara, regarded as one of the most dynamic and creative architects in Morocco.

Interior design by Director Tanja Tibaldi reflects the many facets of the rich cultural and artistic traditions of Moorish art and architecture.

Philosophy - to offer an oasis of calm and comfort, as an antidote to the vibrant hustle and bustle outside.

11 bedrooms, including one suite, all en suite and each individually decorated along themes inspired by the rich cultural and artistic traditions of Moorish art and architecture.

Restaurant dining room and rooftop terrace for traditional Moroccan and Mediterranean dishes, grilled meats and light salads.

Hammam and spa, exclusive to hotel guests, offer massage, traditional hammam, treatments and Jacuzzi.

Boutique shop selling carefully selected and commissioned Moroccan handicrafts such as jewellery, kaftans, textiles, books, and natural beauty products.
